

For Immediate Release
January 8, 2008

Contact: Susan Beyda
CBCA Membership and Communications Director
303-282-5129
sbeyda@cbca.org

Colorado Business Committee for the Arts (CBCA) Names New Board Members

DENVER, CO – Colorado Business Committee for the Arts (CBCA), a nonprofit that serves as a catalyst for Colorado’s business community to leverage the arts for economic vitality, has named the following new Board Members to 2-year terms:

- Denis E. Dandeneau, Vice President, CH2M Hill Constructors, Inc.
- Bruce M. Flynn, Partner, Barker Rinker Seacat Architecture
- Benjamin A. Kahn, Shareholder, Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, LLP
- Khanh H. Le, Assistant Vice President and Trust Officer, Colorado State Bank and Trust
- Dan K. Long, President & Co-Founder, Mad Greens Inspired Eats
- Maren C. Stewart, Vice President of External Affairs, The Children’s Hospital

Deborah Jordy, CBCA Executive Director, comments, “It is a privilege to have these highly respected individuals join the CBCA Board and I look forward to further expanding CBCA’s outreach in the community as a result of their leadership.”

Colorado Business Committee for the Arts (CBCA) is a catalyst for Colorado’s business community to leverage the arts for economic vitality. CBCA is a member organization of leading companies that have a philanthropic commitment to the arts and recognize the link between our cultural vitality and creative and innovative success. Over 120 metro area businesses, with over 75,000 employees, are members of CBCA. Established in 1984 by local business leaders, Colorado is one of 21 affiliates of the National Business Committee for the Arts founded by David Rockefeller in 1967. www.cbca.org

For photos or more information:

Susan Beyda
CBCA Membership and Communications Director
303-282-5129
sbeyda@cbca.org
www.cbca.org

Individual Profiles of the new CBCA board members follow.

Denis E. Dandaneau

Denis E. Dandaneau, Vice President of CH2M Hill Constructors, Inc., has over 30 years of diverse professional experience in municipal and industrial water and wastewater services. He currently serves as Director of PPP for CH2M Hill's Water Business Group, Inc. His development of public/private partnerships have resulted in the successful implementation of major domestic and international projects for both municipal and industrial clients. Dandaneau volunteers for Central City Opera.

Bruce M. Flynn

Bruce M. Flynn, Barker Rinker Seacat Architecture Partner, Managing Principal and Principal in Charge, directs a variety of community and municipal architectural projects including libraries, arts centers and recreation facilities. Flynn developed an expertise in programming for public projects utilizing an inclusive process, providing leadership in the early program and conceptual design phase and has won national design awards. Co-author of several articles on community facility design, Flynn participates in the Recreation Design and Planning School held in Colorado. He is Chair of AiA Colorado, on the board of directors for American Institute of Architects, a graduate thesis advisor at the University of Colorado and Advancement Advisory Chairman of the Denver Boy Scouts.

Benjamin A. Kahn

Benjamin A. Kahn, Shareholder at Brownstein Farber Schreck, LLP, works in the firm's litigation group, focusing on commercial litigation involving contractual disputes, real estate, natural resources, products defense, construction, telecommunications, professional liability and insurance coverage. Kahn also founded, owns and manages Park Hill Properties & Capital Holdings and Los Diablos Verdes. His community involvement includes serving Colorado Lawyers for the Arts as a referral attorney, and being on the board of governors for the Greater Park Hill Community and the re-election steering committee for Councilwoman Marcia Johnson.

Khan H. Le

As Assistant Vice President and Trust Officer, Colorado State Bank and Trust, Khan H. Le specializes in trust, estate and foundation taxation and administration. Le is a graduate of Colorado State University. Her community service includes time with the Colorado Planned Giving Roundtable Program Committee, volunteering for the Denver Art Museum and for PlatteForum and serving as a board member of VSA Arts of Colorado.

Dan K. Long

Dan K. Long, President & Co-Founder of Mad Greens Inspired Eats, began his career as a successful equities trader on Wall Street, then trained as a chef in New York City. Long attended The Institute of Culinary Education and apprenticed at New York's Veritas and at Plaza Hotel's ONE C.P.S. as sous-chef/steward. Along with his culinary degree, Long holds a history degree from Colorado College. Mad Greens Inspired Eats began in 2004 and there are currently 7 locations in Denver and Boulder.

Maren C. Stewart

As Vice President of External Affairs at The Children's Hospital, Maren C. Stewart oversees strategic direction of government affairs, advocacy, public relations, community outreach and marketing as well as serving on the hospital's executive leadership team. Currently, Stewart serves on the American Board of Pediatrics Residency Review & Redesign Committee and was recently appointed by Governor Ritter to the Advisory Committee Covering All Children in Colorado. She has also worked with the National Association of Children's Hospitals Council on Child Advocacy as well as the board of directors for the Denver Metro Chamber Foundation, the Donor Awareness Council, the Colorado Association of Nonprofit Organizations and Colorado Bright Beginnings. In 2000, Denver Business Journal named Stewart in "40 under 40."

###